There will be a big land slide in favor of the the whole Republican ticket in Middle Tennessee on election day.

Ex-Gov. Patterson, who has just returned from a speech making tour through the north and east had this to say in the lobby of the Maxwell house in the presence of several persons in regard to the coming November election:

"I believe that Hughes is going to sweep the country in November and that he will easily win over the democratic candidate. I have been speaking the north and east and I find that the Hughes sentiment is growing every day and he is receiving a wonderful support in these sections"

HER REASON FOR WEEPING

Mrs. Ackroyd's Explanation Also Gives Her Husband Occasion for Some Sober Thinking.

Just when Mrs. Ackroyd had finished packing her trunks and after William had bought railway tickets for her and their two daughters little Bessie came down with a severe case of whooping cough. The doctor positively refused to let the child start on a long journey, and even if he had thought it safe for the little one to leave home he assured Mrs. Ackroyd that she would not be permitted to take the patient into a hotel anywhere.

"Isn't it a shame!" the distressed lady wailed. "Here we are with everything in our trunks and my husband has even bought our berths in the sleeper."

"It is unfortunate, but I don't know what you can do except sit down and wait for four or five days. It may be safe for you then to start away."

When her husband got home that evening Mrs. Ackroyd was weeping.

"Don't take it so hard, dear," he said. "It might be a good deal worse. Our little one is likely to get along all right. The doctor says the case isn't an unusually severe one, and when I telephoned him this afternoon he said he thought it might be safe for you to start away by the end of the week."

"I know. He told me the same thing. But I feel that we'll never go. I never postponed anything yet that didn't turn out sadly. I once postponed a wedding and the marriage never took place."

Half an hour later William Ackroyd was still sitting in a corner, thinking it over.

- EDUCATION -

You teach your children all sorts of things: reading, writing, arithmetic, science and literature.

Why don't you teach them the most important thing of all? Thrift. Thrift has to be learned. It hardly ever comes by nature.

Encourage saving. Let the boys and girls have their own capital, their own saving bank account, and keep adding to it.

They will love it if you show them how.
